TUGboat, the newsletter of the TpX Users Group (TUG), is published irregularly for TUG by the American Mathematical Society, P.O. Box 6248, Providence, RI 02940. Annual dues for individual members of TUG include one subscription to TUGboat; fees are detailed on the membership form bound into the back of this issue. Applications for membership in TUG should be addressed to the TpX Users Group, c/o American Mathematical Society, P.O. Box 6248, Providence, RI 02940; applications must be accompanied by payment.

Manuscripts should be submitted to a member of the TUGboat Editorial Committee, whose names and addresses are listed inside the front cover. Articles of general interest, or not covered by any of the topics listed, as well as all items submitted on magnetic tape, should be addressed to Barbara Beeton, American Mathematical Society, P.O. Box 6248, Providence, RI 02940.

Submissions to TUGboat are for the most part reproduced with minimal editing. Any questions regarding the content or accuracy of particular items should be directed to the authors.
